A German Puzzle

From the Manchester, N. H , Mirror. The following somewhat simple puzzle has been furnished us by a gentle man, of this city:

A B B B

The object of the puzzle is to place three articles of a kind on the lines marked A, and three of a kind on the B lines, with a blank line between. Take, for instance, silver dimes and one-cent pieces. Place the dimes on the A lines, and the cent pieces on the Bs. Now change the cent pieces to the A lines, and vice versa, by advancing directly forward, either moving to the next unoccupied line, or jumping a coin over one another (and only one at a time) of the opposite kind, Continue until the dimes and the cents have changed places, and are in regular order one above the other. There can be no retreating; the moves must all be made forward.

The Rich Horse Fanciers of New York From the Cincinnati Gazette.

William Astor has just sold his racers and retired from the turf. He has become weary of the expense and annoyance inseparable from such pursuits. A man must have a natural love for horses to adhere to equine Astor took it up as an imitator of Belmont and Bonner. The latter, however, have a well known passion for such animals, which explains their lavish expenditure. Bonner's outlay for taking care of 100 head of fine horses is not less than $20,000 a year. When you add to this the interest on the estimated value of the horses, ($300,000), you have an expense equa to $800 per week. This is a degree of enthusiasm unequalled in the records of horsemanship. For thirty years Bonner has been buying the finest horses in America, and still he is, like Oliver Twist, asking for more.

A Bad Tear.

From the Wercester Gazetto. "Yes, sir; I have stopped drinking Angelica. Port. Sherr. for a whole year," said a young man to a companion. "I have sworn that for 365 days, my friend, I shall not drink another drop." "But you see," replied the companion, "that this, being Leap-Year, has 366 days." "That's a fact," mused the sworn-off man. a fact," mused the sworn-off man. "Guess I'd better select some other year;" and they went into a saloon.

Comfortable Incomes.

The following is the income per day of the principal sovereigns of Europe: Queen Victoria, $6,300; the Emperor of Austria, $10,000; the Emperor of Russia, $25,000; The Emperor of Germany, $8,000; the Sultan, $18,000; the King of Itally, $6,400; and the King of the Belgians, $1,640. The President of the French Republic enjoys a salary of $500 per day. enjoys a salary of $500 per day.

WHICH IS THE SAFER?

The principal reason for the exist ence of the Republican party this year seems to be the dangerous character of the Democratic party, the low state of morals, both political and priyate, in the Southern States, where it s so strong. The course of the Grovers, Garcelons and Donnelly points to the one fact that that party is not to be trusted. The Conklings, Camerous and Gorhams have scared the Republicans, who desire to think for impossibility. The Carson Appeal claims to be the only paper in the this party and representing themselves United States that has pub-as having all they could do to keep the lished correct. Of course there must be an endito this some time. Honest Republicant will not keep a lot of leeches in office under the pretext that if the opposite ficket is elected the country will be ruined. It is hard to believe that one half the people of the United States are only waiting for a chance to ruin the Government. It is hard to believe that the present leaders who are so determined to give us Grant for a third term are any less dangerous than the most stalwart Democrat. It will be very hard indeed to make them vote that way this fall. There would be immense numbers who would vote for Bayard in preference to Grant. And the reason is, not that he is a bad nor an unintelligent man, nor that he is up for a third term, so much as that the machine is trying to force him upon the party against the wishes of the majority.

PYRAMID LAKE, Apr. 1, '80. Editor Gazette:- As there is no Democratic organ in our county, I do a short space in the columns of the izen, one of the humblest of the humten swells with Democratic pride when I reflect upon that period of our country's history, between the adoption of the Constitution and the beginning of Buchanan's administration, when the Democratic party was the grandest political party in the world. When great Democratic statesmen of-ten sat in the Presidential chair, clothed in the robes of true Democracy, and held in their hands a banner on which was written "liberty and union" —in those days life must have been worth something just to live and be a Democrat. But from the commencement of Buchanan's administration down to the present time, Democracy has had to carry on its shoulders men the life out of anything else except Democracy. It waded through a great civil war that men who called hemselves Democrats helped to bring on, and in 1865 it stood wounded and almost deserted

But thousands of men who had join ed the Republican party to help save the Union, soon saw that it would never do to let Democracy die, and it has again passed from State to State, until its shadow has crossed nearly every threshold in the land. But it never will do to renominate Tilden. For the last three years Tilden's name has been a great drawback to the Democratic party. But many leading Democrats do not seem to notice or believe it. And here in Nevada some of our great leaders are crying aloud for Tilden. But don't they see that the party can never be united under Tilden. Don't they know that there are thousands of good Democrats that cau't be induced to yote for that money-loving, intriguing politician again. Now I know that I am but a wee drop in the great Democratic bucket, and the great Democratic leaders of Nevada will take no notice of this. But I do earnestly hope that the Democrats of Washoe county will refuse to aid in sending delegates to the Cincinnati Convention to vote for Samuel J. Tilden. If Tilden is nominated by the Cincinnati Convention, our party will be defeated this year worse than it was

But if the Cincinnati Convention nominates a pure-minded Democratic statesman of known ability, a man who has no prejudices against North or South, a man who loves his country, her institutions and her flat—if such a part of the country to the country. man is brought to the front by the Cincinnati Convention, he will be borne in to the White House on the waves of a majority that will wash the foundation from under General Grant's J. B. WHITEHEAD.

spring. Their three daughters, Mat-Nells, a bright boy of 9, were taken down, and night before last Neils died. Mrs. Hashind has been untiring in her attendance upon her child-ren and her weighty afflictions have well nigh broken her down. The poor lady was sick when Carrie died, and the loss of her youngest born is a crushing blow. Nothing that can be said or done can soften her great sorrow, and the words of sympathy which come to the lips of friends at such times must seem almost like mockery

A Bummer Badly Frightened.

A blear-eyed bummer bolted a meal at the Arcade restaurant this noon and left without paying for it. Dave Mc-Farland thought he would give the fellow a wholesome fright, and started after him with a big revolver. Hold on," shouted Dave as he caught sight of his man about to turn the nearest corner. The bummer looked over his shoulder, and seeing Dave in pursuit, turned back and drew near McFarland with a white face and shaking knees. But when he got a good look at the pistol, his self possession re-turned. "The hell," he said, "it's a pistol you've got. I thought it was a stomach pump."

AN ENCOUNTER AT WADSWORTH

Deputy Sheriff Jake Lewis to be Ined for Striking S. Arastei

S. Arnstein and Jake Lewis had a slight altercation at Wadsworth last evening, which ended in Mr. Arnstein's being "pasted" by Mr. Lewis not believe that you will refuse to give The difficulty occurred in the manuer following: Arastein has for sometime GAZETTE for a Democrat to say a few had an account against a Wadsworth words before the Democratic Convention meets. And my heart of Lewis, who is al Deputy Sheriff, to Lewis, who is all Deputy Sheriff, to collect the account, but Lewis did not wish to annoy the lady, and had fold Arnstein so. He further told the latter that the way to settle the matter would be by an attachment or other legal process, which he (Lewis) would be obliged to serve.

Yesterday Arnstein asked Lewis attach a box of groceries marked "P G.," in transit on a wheel barrow from the station to the hotel, and the property of the lady. Lewis refused to undertake so small a proceeding, whereat Arnstein became very angry and abusve. Last evening he met and abusve. Last evening he met Lewis again, and repeated his insulting language, with some considerable ing language, with some considerable additions, whereupon Lewis proceeded to do the "pasting" above mentioned. Arnstein was very lightly hit. He made no fight, and iramediately ledged a complaint of assault and battery in Justice Griswold's court. Lewis appeared, pleaded guilty and said he would pay his fine in the morning.

Subsequently Arostein withdrew the charge before the Justice, and telegraphed to his lawyer in Reno to have Deputy Sheriff Lewis indited on Flat. a charge of striking him "offici-ally." This charge of "striking offici-ally" is considered by "the boys" a

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the stringry disposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hus, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all guch cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
